

Schull Harbour Sailing Club

Privacy Policy

1 About this Policy

1.1 This is the Privacy Policy (“Policy”) of Schull Harbour Sailing Club (“the Club”) which gives you information regarding our use of your Personal Data.

1.2 This Policy explains what information we collect about you and why; how we use that information and the rights that you have in relation to your personal information

1.3 This Policy covers all personal data created, inputted, submitted, posted, transmitted, stored or displayed by you or is processed through the use of Schull Harbour Sailing Club provided Services, including: <https://www.shsc.ie>; (the “Website”) as well as through the use of our other services. For the purposes of this Policy, our “Services” refer to any services provided by Schull Harbour Sailing Club including, catering and sailing events together with all ancillary services.

1.4 We may collect, use and store your personal data, as described in this Policy and as described when we collect data from you.

1.5 We reserve the right to amend this Policy from time to time without prior notice. You are advised to check our website www.shsc.ie for any amendments (but amendments will not be made retrospectively).

1.6 We will always comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) when dealing with your personal data. Further details on the GDPR can be found at the website for the Data Protection Commissioner <https://www.dataprotection.ie/docs/GDPR/1623.htm>.

1.7 For the purposes of the GDPR, we will be the “controller” of all personal data we hold about you.

2 Who are we?

2.1 Schull Harbour Sailing Club is a private members Club with an address at Pier Road, Schull, co Cork email schullhsc@gmail.com

3 What information do we collect and why?

We may collect and process the following data about Members, non-members and guests:

3.1.1 Contact and identification details – When you apply to be a member; join the Club; make an inquiry to the Club; enter an event we may record your name, contact details (both postal and email addresses) telephone number(s), contact preferences, sailing experience, age, gender, marital status. This allows us to manage your membership or to contact you about changes to the Club or to let you know about upcoming events if you have indicated you wish to be contacted in this manner. These details enable us manage your membership category and to ensure that the Club has adequate facilities for all members.

3.1.2 Payment details – We record your payment details either when you electronically pay for goods and services in our Club by card or when you elect to pay your subscription by direct debit. We require this information to collect debts and process payments.

3.1.3 Website - If you use our website we record information about the URL you came from, your device's IP address, your browser type and information about where your device is located. We use this information to improve our website experience.

3.1.4 Events – if you enter an event we will record all information about your boat and crew members including name, address, telephone number, email address, age, weight, gender or call sign. We use this information to improve events by providing us with feedback as to the categories of entrants and to ensure that boats at an event can maintain contact with each other for matters of emergency.

3.1.5 Boat Details – we may record your name, boat details and sail number to assist in managing race entries and race results in order to share race results with other Clubs, class associations, and Irish Sailing, and providing race results to local and national media.

3.1.6 Your children – where you apply for training, membership or entry to an event on behalf of your child, we will record all personal information supplied including name, address, telephone number, age, gender, and health information such as allergy information, special needs and next of kin. Where your children attend Club events and training we will endeavor to keep a record of their attendance. This information is used to safeguard your children's safety by allowing us to ensure we can meet our health and safety obligations. Where your child attends a training course with the Club we will retain details of their performance and may submit this information to Irish Sailing in order to allow your child progress through the Irish Sailing training schemes.

3.1.7 Correspondence – if you submit an inquiry or post a comment on our website we will keep a record of that correspondence for feedback.

3.1.8 Incidents – if you report an incident to the Club or if you or your child or guest are involved in an incident with the Club we will record details of the incident.

3.2 Third Parties

3.2.1 Schull Harbour Sailing Club may share your information with third parties in order to administer your membership, however, under no circumstances will we sell your information to any third parties.

3.2.2 We may give information about you to the following third parties, who may use it for the same purposes as us and also as set out below:

3.2.3 We share data with our agents, contractors, software providers and employees to administer your membership and your account.

3.2.4 We share your card and bank details with our secure payment providers to process card transactions and direct debit payments.

3.2.5 We may pass your personal data to other third parties who are service providers, agents and subcontractors to us for the purposes of completing tasks and providing services to you on our behalf. However, we disclose only the personal data that is necessary for the third party to deliver the service and we will have a contract in place that requires them to meet at least the same standards as those contained in this Policy and to keep your information secure and not to use it for their own or other purposes.

3.2.6 We may submit your personal details to other third parties in order to comply with our obligations under health and safety legislation i.e. insurers or the gardai.

3.3 Club's Legal Obligations
